The Great War had now come into its second winter Chapter --a winter which was marked by an absolute cessa- tion of all serious fighting upon the Western front. TMy Enormous armies were facing each other, but until luie. the German attack upon the French lines of Verdun at the end of February, the infantry of neither side was seriously engaged. There were many raids and skirmishes, with sudden midnight invasions of hostile trenches and rapid returns with booty or prisoners. Both sides indulged in such tactics upon the British front. Gas attacks, too, were...
