Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 279 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .You may have seen homemade soaps being sold at your local market. These soaps usually come in different colors and shapes. Some of them have basic ingredients while others are infused with oils, herbs and other ingredients. More often than not, these soaps cost more than your regular bar. Soap making is usually seen as a hobby for people who enjoy handcrafts. However, homemade soap also has practical benefits. Making your own soap allows you to control the ingredients that you use. You can avoid any undesirable ingredients that are in most commercially made soaps, especially if you have sensitive skin. There are a lot of ingredients that you can use to make soap so you can experiment with different combinations. While there may be a lot of coupons or discount cards for commercially produced soap, it is definitely cheaper to make own bars in the long run. You will just need to invest in basic soap making ingredients to get started. Additionally, your homemade soap bars will have a higher quality than commercial soap. Homemade soaps are also good for people with skin problems. This book contains soap recipes that specifically address skin conditions. Some soap contains clay which is good for oily skin while others have olive oil which can moisturize the skin. Herbs and oil can add benefits to your soaps. Soap making can provide you with a sense of satisfaction and fulfilment. Homemade soaps are more than just a product. It can be seen as a work of art and is one of the best personalized gifts that you can give to anyone. Once you have mastered the basics of soap making, you can...
