Oxford University Press, New Delhi, India, 2003. Paperback. Book Condition: New. First Edition. This volume brings together a collection of three plays written by Gurcharan Das during his twenties. An introduction by the renowned playwright himself, adds to its value. Larins Sahib is a historical play set in the confused period after the death of Ranjit Singh when the British first arrived in Punjab. This prize-winning play explores the development of the hubris, which brings about the hero's downfall. Larins Sahib has been performed in major Indian cities, and at the Edinburgh Festival. Mira, a rite of Krishna for five actor-dancers, premiered at the La Mama Theatre in New York in 1970. It explores the phenomenon of sainthood through the story of Mirabai, the sixteenth century Rajput poetess-saint. The New York Times called it remarkable in the way it combined Indian legend with the sophistication of Western total theatre [it] has something of the quality of a dream ritual. 9 Jakhoo Hill, the third play in this series, is set in the autumn of 1962 in Shimla. It examines a number of themes the changing social order with the rise of a new middle class, the incestuous obsessions of an ageing uncle, the hold of Indian mothers on their sons, and the eventual betrayal of sexual love. This is a book that both the general reader and the theatre buff would love to read and possess. Printed Pages: 208.
