Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from An Address Delivered Before the Philolexian Society: Of Columbia College, May 17th 1810, Being the Anniversary of the Society Gentlemen of the Philolexian Society: Standing before you, and this respected audience this evening, by your kind invitation - an honor of which I am deeply sensible, and to which I feel that I am little entitled, except as an affectionate son of our Alma Mater, and as an honorary member of your body - my thoughts are involuntarily, yet powerfully carried back to other days, when, under far different circumstances, I stood with my fellow students beneath this roof. The scenes of college life are reproduced with no ordinary vividness upon memory's tablet. The hopes, the fears, the aspirations, the enjoyments, the privileges of that most interesting and important period of one's life, crowd upon the mind. Again do I warmly greet my companions and friends. Again do I hear the well known sound of the bell, summoning us to chapel or the lecture room, and again experience something of those mingled feelings...
