The Desserted Island poem collection contains 105 original poems, spanning a variety of topics. This book is categorized into four sections: Children s (42 Poems), Contemporary (41 Poems), Heavy Poems (12 poems for older audiences on topics such as war and society), and Nature (10 Poems). SAMPLE: CHILDREN S Bob the Snob: Bob the snob was a really big slob He had piles of money (all of it robbed) They filled up his house and always spilled out And tumbled out the windows like water from a spout The neighbors said, Oh, what a show-off he is Displaying his money so we know it is his. The police saw the money and said, That s a clue Bob heard them outside and thought, What should I do? He tried to escape but right in his way Were the piles of money he d robbed yesterday He tripped and he landed and made such a yell The police easily found the place where he fell They handcuffed him and brought him to jail And he sat there wondering how he had failed So the lesson, you see, is don t be a snob Don t rob, and especially, don t be a slob. CONTEMPORARY If I ll Have You: Dear Love, dear love of mine Your face is perfect, you are so fine Dear Love, one let us be In response to the painted sea Dear Love, everything s yours My wealth, my home, and through the doors Dear Love, the golden trees The autumn ferns and plum spiced breeze My dear, the desert rain The gracious stalks, of plants in plain My dear, my heart...
