OCLC Number: (OCoLC)320445893 Subject: Political refugees -- Burma. Excerpt: . . . 9 pending, involving the prosecution of at least three alleged human traffickers. In 2005, Thai police raided a jungle compound operated by human traffickers which contained 37 Burmese and 2 Pakistani migrants. Knowing that eventual arrest and extortion are likely realities, many Burmese migrants in Malaysia pool their financial resources, so that they are prepared to respond to individual demands for paid freedom. Burmese migrants are not always transported to the Malaysia-Thailand border for payment arrangements to obtain their release. There are reports that freedom from detention can come by paying Malaysian officials where they are detained. One Burmese refugee, now resettled in Indiana, cited eight occasions from May, 2001 to September 10, 2006, when payment was made for their release from detention. The fee ranged from 50 ringgit on December 24, 2002, to 800 ringgit on August 15 of 2005. Reports have been received of refugees being beaten if they are unable to arrange payment. The committee also received a report of...
