Servant Worthy

By Johnny Willis

Tate Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Perfect Paperback. 108 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.1in. x 0.3in. Before God chooses to use someone in the earth, he has already proven them to be servant worthy. Servant Worthy reveals the needed loyalty as well as the commitment level of anyone who is called to ministry. Speaking from thirty-nine years of successful cutting-edge ministry as a pastor, author Johnny Willis gives fresh new insight on what God is looking for today before one can expect the release of Gods anointing upon their lives to accompany their call. Servant Worthy gives a invigorating look at a recurring theme throughout the Bible, how God proves the heart of a person before considering them for service. David, weary with fighting had a nostalgic moment and voiced his thirst for water from the well in Bethlehem. Three of his soldiers heard the desire of their king and decreed: If my king wants water from Bethlehem, He shall have it. These three men broke through the enemy territory putting their lives in jeopardy. Their loyalty to the call of serving their king meant more to them than the value of their individual lives. They performed a selfless act that...
