CHURCHES OF VENICE

Arsenale Editrice. 1 Flexi-binding(s), 2001. soft. Book Condition: New. In Venice, where water is everywhere and space is not, the churches of this island-bound city-state are remarkable for their compact forms and for the decorative elements lavished on their façades. Each characterizes the area where it is built particularly on the smaller islands, where the churches are often the most important and majestic buildings and because of Venice's wealth, these small yet spectacular churches tend to resemble jewel boxes. Illustrated here in...
